LIVING BEYOND BREAST CANCER WELCOMES SEVEN NEW BOARD MEMBERS

PHILADELPHIA, PA, March 30, 2018 — Living Beyond Breast Cancer, the national education and support organization, is pleased to announce the appointment of seven new members to its Board of Directors, who began serving effective January 2018.

Janet Marie Doherty, Philadelphia, PA

A breast cancer survivor, Janet Doherty is passionate about helping others manage their futures. In 2016, she founded Preserving The Love, which helps cancer patients preserve their fertility. Doherty is an associate at Dechert LLP, where she manages debt and restructuring cases. A graduate of LaSalle University, Doherty earned her law degree from Temple University's Beasley School of Law. She is a member of the Pennsylvania and New York State Bar Associations and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Ellen F. Evans, Haverford, PA

Ellen Evans is president and founder of Evans Pharma Consulting LLC, an independent consulting practice specializing in pharmaceutical drug development. She has more than 25 years' experience in the field, including work with BTG International, MedImmune Oncology, and U.S. Bioscience, Inc. She is an endurance athlete and board member of YMCA Haverford and the Philadelphia Triathlon Club. Evans is also Treasurer and Trustee of The Snave Foundation. She received a BA in Psychology from Yale University, and an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Jennifer Fiss, MD, Philadelphia, PA

Jennifer Fiss lives in Mt. Airy with her husband and two children. She serves as co-chair of parent communities at Penn Charter School and as a 2017–18 vice chair for the Pennsylvania Horticulture Society/Philadelphia Flower Show. She earned an undergraduate Biology and Anthropology degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and an MD from Temple University School of Medicine.
